

Free SSCS Electronic Membership for 2020 A-SSCC Attendees!

Dear 2020 A-SSCC Attendee,

On behalf of the IEEE Solid-State Circuits Society, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to you for attending the 2020 A-SSCC, which is one of our Society's main events held annually in the Far East. As a token of appreciation for your support of SSCS-sponsored conferences in this unusual environment, our Society is offering all registrants of this year's A-SSCC who currently are IEEE members a one-year free SSCS electronic membership for 2020-2021.

SSCS membership gives you free access to a wealth of practical content, helping you stay current on technical developments and find solutions. This content includes:

- Online Tutorials and Short Courses
- Webinars
- A Distinguished Lecturer Program with an active roster of world-class lecturers
- Subscription to a portfolio of leading publications.
- Student members also are eligible for recognition through Predoctoral Achievement Awards and Student Travel Grants.
- All members receive ample networking opportunities at more than 90 grass-roots chapters around the world, and virtually through our Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter presence.
- All members also receive the most favorable rates on our four sponsored international conferences.

To claim this offer, please send an email with the subject "A-SSCC 2020 Special" to l.caruso@ieee.org and include the following information:

- Your name and IEEE membership number
- Your A-SSCC registration number

Stay in touch with SSCS and have a wonderful time at A-SSCC!

Sincerely,
